

Accessing AEX Webcast

- It is advisable that you attend an AEX's online Webcast session before you submit a bid in either an eRFQ or Auction. Webcast offers voice-over screen demonstrations on the entire process that you can view and review at your convenience.
- To play a Webcast session, you will need Windows Media Player, Quicktime, Real Video or Flash. You will also need a system equipped with a sound card and speakers/headphones.
- To enhance the learning experience, you should review the user guide first before attending the Webcast.
- Last but not least, Webcast is free-of-charge. You can attend as many sessions as you want.
