Sentosa – Asia’s favourite playground – is just 15 minutes away from Singapore’s city centre. This resort island is home to a plethora of themed attractions, award-winning spa retreats, lush forests, white sandy beaches, resort accommodations, championship golf courses, a deep-water yachting marina and luxury residences – making it a compelling business and leisure destination for millions of visitors over the world.

Enjoy the contrasting view of Singapore’s buzzing skyline and tranquil neighbouring islands from Asia’s tallest observatory tower, the Tiger Sky Tower. Savour the sight of the Merlion, Singapore’s legendary and mighty half-lion/half-fish icon. Put spectacular effects, water jets, lasers, bursts of fire and engaging music in your travel recipe as you witness Songs of the Sea – Singapore’s multi-sensory world-class water show.

With the Sentosa Rider, travelling from Singapore’s city centre to Sentosa island is now a breeze.

The Battle Box At Fort Canning

The Battle Box, one of the most important World War II sites in Singapore, is a massive military bunker located some 9m below ground. Through the use of specially arranged audio, video effects, and specially crafted figurines, the war museum bring visitors back to the morning of 15 February 1942, when the surrender decision was made by General Percival and Singapore fell to the Japanese.

Singapore Zoo

Visit the award-winning Singapore Zoo! This eight-time winner of the ‘Best Leisure Attraction Experience’ by the Singapore Tourism Board is considered one of the best and most beautiful zoos in the world. The zoo is home to over 2500 specimens from 315 species, and boasts an “open concept” so visitors are surrounded by lush greenery of the tropics. If you get tired from walking around the zoo, stop to watch a show or two – the Splash Safari stars the Californian sealions, while the elephants show off their might at the Elephants at Work and Play.

Take the SIA Hop-on Bus to your preferred Ya Kun outlet.

The name Ya Kun invariably conjures up images of freshly-made kaya toast in the minds of Singaporeans. What is unique about Ya Kun is that they offer the same proprietary kaya recipe, prepared exactly the same way as when they first started in 1944. From being simply a breakfast item, these local favourites have become the comfort meal for many Singaporeans, at any time of the day. For the last 67 years, their time-tested menu and affordable process have had locals and foreigners alike flocking to their outlets for a toasted slice of perfection.
